ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Under the Company's Articles of Association, the Company may indemnify its directors and other officers in respect of any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, brought against them by reason of their being directors or officers of the Company and to the fullest extent permitted by the Companies Act 2006 of the United Kingdom ("CA 2006") and other applicable law.

Generally, under CA 2006, any provision by which the Company directly or indirectly provides an indemnity (to any extent) for a director of the Company or of an "associated company" (i.e., a company that is a parent, subsidiary or sister company of the Company) against any liability attaching to him or her in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the company of which he or she is a director is (subject to certain exceptions specified under CA 2006) void.

The Company has entered into a deed of indemnity with each of its directors, the form of which was filed as Exhibit 10.26 to the Company's registration statement on Form F-4 (Registration No. 333-229351), as originally filed by the Company on January 25, 2019 and subsequently amended. Except as prohibited by applicable law, these deeds of indemnity may require the Company, among other things, to indemnify its directors and executive officers for certain expenses, including attorneys' fees, costs and expenses, incurred by such directors and executive officers with the prior written consent of the Company in any action or proceeding arising out of their service as a director or executive officer of the Company, or one of its subsidiaries.

The Company maintains directors and officers insurance coverage, which, subject to policy terms and limitations, is expected to include coverage to reimburse the Company for amounts that it may be required or permitted by law to pay directors or officers of the Company.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Company has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

SCHEDULE 2
RESERVATIONS

The opinion in this letter is subject to the following reservations:

- a) the Searches are not capable of revealing conclusively whether or not a winding-up or administration petition, filing or order has been presented or made, a monitor or receiver appointed, a company voluntary arrangement proposed or approved or a moratorium or any other insolvency proceeding commenced. We have not made enquiries of any District Registry or County Court;
- b)
- (1) any limitations arising from applicable laws relating to insolvency, bankruptcy, administration, reorganisation, liquidation, moratoria, schemes, restructuring plans or analogous circumstances; and
- (2) an English court exercising its discretion under section 426 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (co-operation between courts exercising jurisdiction in relation to insolvency) to assist the courts having the corresponding jurisdiction in any part of the United Kingdom or any relevant country or territory;
- c) we express no opinion as to matters of fact;
- d) we express no opinion on the compliance of the 2019 EIP, or the compliance of any award made under the 2019 EIP, with the rules or regulations of the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC or the rules or regulations of any other securities exchange that are applicable to the Company;
- e) we express no opinion in relation to the legality, enforceability or validity of the 2019 EIP or any award agreement entered into pursuant to it. In particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, we have assumed that the Shares to be allotted under the 2019 EIP or any such award agreement will be paid up in full (as to their nominal value and any premium) in cash (within the meaning of section 583(1) of the Companies Act) and we express no opinion as to whether any consideration other than “cash consideration” (as such term is defined in section 583(3) of the Companies Act) which might be paid, or purport to be paid, for the Shares would result in such Shares being validly issued, fully paid and not subject to any call for payment of further capital;
- f) if any award under the 2019 EIP does not constitute the award of a cash bonus, so as to create a liability for a liquidated sum, any Shares purported to be allotted and issued pursuant to any such award will not have been validly allotted and issued for cash in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act and may not therefore be fully paid and not subject to any call for payment of further capital; and
- g) it should be understood that we have not been responsible for investigating or verifying the accuracy of the facts, including statements of foreign law, or the reasonableness of any statements of opinion, contained in the Registration Statement, or that no material facts have been omitted from it.
